

Pine Street Presbyterian Church in the City of Harrisburg

Worship for July 26, 2020, the Eighth Sunday After Pentecost

This Sunday's service will begin with "Professional in C" by Michael Helman. As the introit, The Pine Street Quartet will sing "O That I Had a Thousand Voices" by Johann Mentzer. They will treat us to several other selections including "Children of the Heavenly Father" by Eric Nelson. Dr. Sullivan's sermon is titled "A King with a Dream," and its focus will be on a story from 1 Kings 3:1-15. The story tells of a young King Solomon praying to God for wisdom in order to best lead his people; as such, the sermon will explore the relationship between leadership and wisdom. If you're able, please join us for worship on Facebook or at pinestreet.org.
