

“Welcome one another, therefore,
just as Christ has welcomed you for the glory of God!”

(Romans 15:7)

Who is welcome at Pine Street Presbyterian Church?

You are!

If you are young or old or middle-aged ...

If you are homeless or rent or own ...

If you have a lot of faith, little faith, or no faith at all ...

If you are male or female or trans*....

If you are a Republican, a Democrat, or care little for politics ...

If you are gay or straight ...

If you are married, single, or partnered ...

If you are Asian, Hispanic, Black or White ...

If you are poor or rich, hungry, or well-fed,

If you have addictions, phobias, depression, or mental illness

If you are strong or weak ...

If you wear blue jeans or business casual ...

If you hunger to know more about God and life ...

If you seek more purpose to your daily living ...

If you long for a better and more just world ...

You are welcomed and affirmed here!

Come with your gifts and strengths,
thoughts, doubts and questions,
passions and fears.

Come with the experiences and traditions that formed you.

Come to seek and to listen to God.

Hear God call you to love your neighbor
with all your heart, mind, and soul!

Christ welcomes all and so do we!

Pine Street Presbyterian Church is a welcoming and affirming congregation!
